

Beamz Interactive Music System (654590)

SUPER: Beamz Interactive Music System

Hi, this is Michael at Brookstone.
Today I'm going to show you the amazing device that turns your motions into sophisticated musical results.

SUPER: Jerry Riopelle in Concert

Break the beam of light with your hand and make music. From drums and guitars to smooth jazz and even new-age chimes
gongs and softer sounds.

Play in time with a music track
you can accompany your favorite bands.
All it takes is a series of simple movements and breaking a beam of light between the towers.

SUPER: Interact with Music Videos

Use the Beamz System to join your favorite band.
Play along with them and see if you can improve upon their most memorable hits.
It's easy and it's fun for everyone and any age.

SUPER: Alone or With Friends

Use one Beamz System to enjoy creating music.
Use two systems to create music with a friend.
Coordinated tones and riffs will add fun.
You'll enjoy music even more with Beamz.

SUPER: The ShadowBeamz Game!

Included with the Beamz System is ShadowBeamz.
This game tests your accuracy and talent.
Play against others or against the machine.
Easy to play, fun for the entire family.

SUPER: Play Music Like Never Before

It's the next advance in music composition and performance.
